

SPEAKERS

Dr. Stephen Okey

Associate Professor of Philosophy,
Theology, and Religion

Dr. Okey teaches courses in systematic theology and theological ethics and is particularly interested in questions of political and military ethics, with a focus on the history of Christian approaches to war.

Dr. Marc Pugliese

Associate Professor of Theology and Religion

Dr. Pugliese conducts research in a range of areas including comparative theology and fundamental/philosophical theology, as well as interdisciplinary research in religion and economics and religion and science.

To RSVP, email:
randall.woodard@saintleo.edu

Research and Writing in Theology Workshop

Wednesday, October 4
7 p.m. (EST) | Join us on Zoom

For more information, please visit:
saintleotheology.com

Each academic discipline has its own unique culture and theology is no exception. What are the professional standards for research and writing in theology and how can one best do research within the online program framework? Join Dr. Stephen Okey and Dr. Marc Pugliese as they share specific tips on success in research and writing in the field of theology.